MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT : Clandestine Service Senior Seminar

REFERENCE : Your Memorandum of 22 April 1969, The CS in a Changing World.

25X1A

25X1A

1. Either [REDACTED] or I would be happy to participate in the second day's discussion in the Senior Seminar. [REDACTED], unfortunately, will not be available during that period.

2. Some of the factors affecting our work in Europe today which we would be prepared to talk about, and among which you may find several pertinent to your broad subject, are:

Changes in the operational climate imposed by growing European self-interests and divergence from some aspects of U.S. policy. [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED] and heightened sensitivity to Agency unilateral operations.

The declining prestige and status of Intelligence and Security Services in European society. The implications of this for our own work.

Effects of "detente," and trade interests, and "liberal communism" on liaison cooperation and agent motivation.
